

Gifts that Make a Difference

Giving with purpose to feed our community!

Choose from the items in this catalog to make a gift on your own behalf, or for a friend or family member. The items described are representative of the impact gifts of every amount can have on relieving hunger in our community.

the food group

food for today, change for tomorrow.

Share locally grown vegetables

$25 provides enough fresh veggies
for 40-50 servings

Provide locally produced eggs

$50 provides 15 dozen fresh eggs
for local households

$100

Contribute holiday meals for families

$100 provides four festive meals sourced from our own Big River Farms growers and other local farmers.

Items in meal include: turkey, stuffing, green beans, corn, cranberry sauce, potatoes, and pie.

$250

Fuel the Twin Cities Mobile Market

$250 provides propane fuel for one week to bring the market to neighborhoods with no access to nearby grocery stores.

Stock a food shelf freezer with local protein

$500 provides 120 pounds of Thousand Hills Ground Beef. Enough for 480-600 servings.

Provide weekend snacks for local students

$1,000 supports nutritious snacks on weekend and school breaks for 118 children

$1,000

$2,500

Share culturally connected pantry staples

$2,500 supplies pantry staples and spices for 125 families